

Improv camp: A fun and powerful learning experience for autistic youth!

Camp Yes And combines improv-based instruction for autistic high school students with professional development for K-12 general and special educators, speech-language pathologists, school psychologists and social workers, community-based arts educators, and more!

Oh, and we laugh. A whole lot.

Social skills instruction doesn't have to be dull, dated, or cheesy.

Two in-person sessions this summer!

- ⇒ Session 1: June 5-9, 2023
- ⇒ Session 2: June 12-16, 2023

"This camp's just opened me up like an eggshell – just cracking open my true self."

All sessions will be held at the IUPUI University Library in Indianapolis, IN
