

Trial Work Experiences

A FREE Informational Webinar
from
Indiana Vocational Rehabilitation Services

September 7, 2017

10 – 11:30 a.m., Eastern Time

Important information for Indiana:

- Employment Specialists/Consultants
- Employment Program Managers
- Vocational Rehabilitation Counselors, Case Coordinators, and Supervisors

It isn't always easy to determine if an applicant for VR employment supports will actually benefit from services. That's where the Trial Work Experience (TWE) comes in.

TWE can give VR and community employment providers a chance to observe a potential client prior to determining eligibility. It's not an employment service. It's not part of Discovery.

Who, then, is a candidate for TWE, how does it work, and what do you need to know? Join us for answers on Thursday, September 7, as we delve into the ABCs (and maybe the XYZs) of TWEs.

Facilitated by Kelley Land, project coordinator, Center on Community Living and Careers, and Rheonna Snedigar, Region 2 manager, Vocational Rehabilitation Services.

- What Is a Trial Work Experience?
- Why Would You Need a Trial Work Experience?
- Documentation
- Expectations
