Prekindergarten in Indiana

November 12, 2009

Dear Public School Administrator,

A new resource has been added to our Prekindergarten in Indiana webpage at the Early Childhood Center.

Combining Funding Streams to Support Prekindergarten Programs: Strategies for Administrators

The contents include:

- Strategies for seeking funds for early learning;
- Challenges, advantages, and disadvantages in combining funds,
- Four most commonly used funding sources, with examples from Indiana schools, and
- Potential funding sources (linked to websites) for Indiana programs.

There are active web links throughout the document so that you can quickly access additional information about the various funding sources.

The examples have been provided by:

- Cannelton City Schools,
- Crawfordsville Community Schools,
- Evansville-Vanderburgh School Corporation,
- MSD of Warren Township, and

Lastly, Alice Cross will be presenting again at the IASP Fall Professionals Conference, November 22-24, 2009. The topic will be, “Prekindergarten: Cost, Quality, Outcomes.” If you are unable to come, please check our website after the conference for the PowerPoint presentation slides.

Thank you for your efforts concerning prekindergarten.
