Fact Sheet 2011

Our mission is to work with communities to welcome, value, and support the meaningful participation of people of all ages and abilities through research, education, and service. The Indiana Institute on Disability and Community (IIDC) at Indiana University, Bloomington has pursued research, education, and service since 1970. For over four decades, our work has been about putting good ideas into everyday life in schools and communities in the interest of people with disabilities and their families.

Indiana Institute Accomplishments for 2011

Research and Evaluation

- Twenty-two research and evaluation studies conducted focusing on:
  - Early intervention/Education
  - Employment
  - Livable communities
  - Self-advocacy/Family Support

Education

- Fifteen interdisciplinary undergraduate and graduate students representing four disciplines;
- Five hundred fourteen students across 34 courses taught by Institute faculty and Staff;
- One thousand four hundred fifty two academic student credit hours generated; and
- Thirty-four students received academic advisement and mentorship.
Scholarship

- Four refereed journal articles;
- One book and book chapter; Thirty-two technical reports and nonrefereed publications;
- Thirty-eight online courses and education modules;
- Thirteen newsletter and related print materials, and
- Three dissertations in progress.

Training and Technical Assistance

- More than 6,500 hours of training and technical assistance was provided;
- Six hundred fifty-four training and technical assistance events were conducted reaching over 36,230 individuals:
- Institute faculty and staff represented on dozens of national, state, university-related, and local boards, and committees.

Dissemination

- Library services offering online access to more than 5,000 holdings targeting university and statewide patrons;
- Over 78,000 Institute products disseminated; and
- Nearly 1 million visits were logged to over 1,000 pages (including social media such as Facebook, Twitter, blogs, pod casts, webinars, and e-newsletters.)

Contact Information

- Web: www.iidc.indiana.edu
- E-mail: iidc@indiana.edu
- Phone/Fax: (812) 855-6508, (812) 855-9630
- U.S. Mail: 2853 E. Tenth Street, Bloomington, IN 47408