Learning Style Inventory
Do you support students who don’t understand their learning styles?
Are you looking for an easy transition assessment that can help students use their learning styles in various settings?

Attached is a short 3-page learning style inventory with an accompanying score sheet and descriptions of each learning style. This easy tool can be used as an age appropriate transition assessment to assist students with understanding their preferred learning styles to increase their academic achievement and learning.