

The Library
at the Indiana Institute
on Disability and Community

Image courtesy of Aldo Cavini Benedetti

INDIANA UNIVERSITY

---

INDIANA INSTITUTE ON DISABILITY AND COMMUNITY

The Library at the Indiana Institute is a full service lending Library with a wide variety of resources about disabilities across the lifespan. The collection is available to view online through Indiana University Libraries' IUCAT (www.iucat.iu.edu) and for checkout via the Institute's Library.

Regardless of where you live, Library staff are pleased to lend our materials to you through the mail or answer any questions you may have!

- For more information about our resources and services, visit: www.iidc.indiana.edu/library
- Call us at: (812) 855-9396
- Toll-free: (800) 437-7924
- Contact us via e-mail: libiidc@indiana.edu

